

Farewell Amy

Amy Russell, our Group 2 teacher for the past 18 months, will today tell her class group that she is leaving Currajong at the end of this school year. Amy will be moving to Queensland during the Christmas break. We will sorely miss Amy's her excellent teaching skills, her extensive computer knowledge (which the whole school community benefited from during the first period of learning-at-home), and her very strong cups of Yorkshire tea! We wish Amy and her husband all the very best as they move towards the next big phase of their lives.

REPORTS

The Semester 2 reports are currently being finalised and proof-read. Reports will be delivered to families on Friday 4th December.

Student Support Group meetings

Student Support Group (SSG) meetings will be held in the last week of the term, commencing Monday 7th December. The general opinion seems to be that the Zoom platform was extremely successful for these meetings. Parents didn't have to arrange a baby-sitter or leave work early in order to dash to the school, and teachers were able to make times that were not confined to straight after school. Parents will be advised of available days and times on Tuesday next week – watch this space!

NEW WEBSITE

Our new website is now live. We have already made a few adjustments and would value any feedback or suggestions you can give us to make it more informative, helpful and accessible. Please have a look and let us know what you think! www.currajong.vic.edu.au
